MIKE FLYNN' FALL : BROKEN TRUMP

Michael T. Flynn

The resignation forced of Mike Flynn, on Monday, February 13th, is of a major importance: it marks, after one month of Donald Trump's presidency the defeat of the White House in the face of « the deep State " and in the warmongering clan of the neoconservatives given rise against a president whose legitimacy they dispute and against whom means of Soros, of Barack Obama and of Clinton, they organize through the country a "revolution of color" which risks, in a term maybe not so distant, to plunge the United States into a civil war.

Mike Flynn, indeed, occupied, from the beginning of Donald Trump's presidency, National Security Adviser's key position. It was the cornerstone of the national safety policy, the only one able to reform the community of the American Intelligence and to subordinate the CIA as well as the Headquarters - that is to say the Pentagon - to President. Thanks to its contacts with two elite corps - the SOCOM (Special Operations Commando squad) and the JSOC (Joined Special Operations Command), Flynn had an instrument of Donald Trump's serious protection to deal with possible attempts to liquidate physically the President or to seize his person. Finally, Flynn was the brain behind the foreign policy of Flynn, to moderate the tensions and to establish a more or less strong collaboration between the United States and Russia. No by any allegiance to Vladimir Putin, but by a rational analysis which brought him to understand - as a François Fillon in France - that Russia is not a threat for the United States or Europe, but that on the contrary the common interests are many.

The pretext of a phone conversation with the ambassador of Russia while Donald Trump was still only elected president is trivial. As for the fact that Mike Flynn provided to vice-president Mike Pence with incomplete information on these conversations with the ambassador - whose objective was to prepare the telephone communication between Donald Trump and Vladimir Putin which took place on January 28th of this year, this indiscretion could settle by simple apologies from Flynn to Mike Pence in the office of the President. But Donald Trump chose to accept the resignation of his National Security Adviser, he did not defend the one who protected him, he meanly let him down : a stupid and self-destructive treason, as from now Donald Trump will be alone, confronted with ideologists who, like general Mattis, are doubtless going to push him towards the war or towards a forced and hasty exit from the White House.

The resignation of Mike Flynn happens two days after a lunar eclipse, in 22° in the axis Leo-Aquarius, connected with the axis of an opposition to 7° Capricorn-Cancer, between the middle-points Saturne/Pluto and Hades/Kronos. This eclipse joins so straightaway in the double cyclical perspective of 2020 (conjunction Saturn-Pluto in 23° Capricorn) and of 2031 (conjunction Hades-Kronos in 19° Cancer). The event also joins in the context of the T square between the opposition Jupiter-Uranus and Pluto, figure compounded by the double conjunction of Jupiter with Zeus and Uranus with Eris.

The day of the resignation of Mike Flynn, the Sun passed in transit in 25° Aquarius - position of the Moon in the theme scorpionique the USA – connected to the mid-point Saturn/Uranus, the Moon being on this day in quincunx to this figure in 25° Virgo.

Both figures of the axis 7° Cancers-Capricorns are situated on the mid-point Venus /Jupiter of the USA. The configuration Saturn/Pluto = Hades/Kronos is eloquent. The overall picture evokes an important failure, and the fact of being given up by the government (Hades/Kronos with Pluto and Saturn); it also indicates a redistribution of power and a blocked developing, a progressive adaptation being reduced to nothing by hostility, lowness and the slander (Saturn/Pluto with Kronos and Hades). We can read in this last touch a reference to the state of relations between the USA and Russia.

In Donald Trump's chart eclipse of February 11th, 2017 affects the network of the axis Mercury/Neptune (22° Lion). Kronos and the Midheaven are involved in the figure, emphasizing a theme of confusion and lies in the spheres of the power. The combination Sun/Saturn=Neptune points on blockings because of confusions and of ambiguities. The Moon/Hades evokes a renunciation or a withdrawal, one hour of fate, of destiny. With Neptune, it is to be feared with troubles for the future and to be without resources to face the difficulties. Finally, the axis Uranus/Hades directs to premonitions of death, sudden ideas of murder. With Neptune, the native is defenceless, threatened with murder by guile and malice.

It is doubtless necessary to take such indications of murder according to the double perspective this of a physical reality, but also symbolic, in this particular case the reduction to nothing of a power. Mike Flynn's cowardly left by Donald Trump fact that President Trump is deprived of any assistance: all those who would be inclined to support him will now have understood that they risk too to be left, and they will be driven away.

Donald Trump is broken from now on, and he risks hardly to be soon ejected from his post. Unless those who have now the hand on the policy of the USA prefer to keep to the White House a simple figurehead rather than making rise vice-president Mike Pence.

Donald Trump's dismissal could also occur during the time of the opposition Jupiter-Uranus which accompanied his un hoped success at the elections of November 8th, 2016. New surprises could accompany the solar eclipse of February 26th, in 8° Pisces, connected with the opposition Jupiter-Uranus in Harmonics 8. The Full Moon of April 11th, in 22° Aries-Libra, spouses with Uranus and with Eris, could be also a critical course, as well as the Full Moon of June 9th, in 19° Gemini-Sagittarius, wich affects Donald Trump's Uranus. In autumn, the New Moon of October 19th, at 27° Libra, will be in opposition of Uranus.

In any case, after the eviction of Mike Flynn, cornerstone of the offensive envisaged against "the deep State", Donald Trump - ejected or not - will be more from now, an isolated and demonetized President. The neoconservatives maybe won the part – it is not sure that the United States and the American people have anything to win at it.

After the hope to see a real relaxation in the international relations once ruled out Hillary Clinton and the warmongering strengths which supported her, the fears are lively all the more now of a direct confrontation of the strengths of the NATO with Russia: these alarms are based in Ukraine, president Porochenko seems more than ever overloaded by uncontrollable strengths which throw again an offensive on Novorussia in Donbass, whereas troops of the NATO are getting more and more numerous along Russia's borders, from the Baltic to Black Sea. And it happens now that Washington seems to join the voices which demand the return of Crimea to Ukraine ... Atomic Clock hands of the American scientists are dangerously getting closer and closer of the witching hour from twelve.
