

At the heart of this theme is the Pluto/Zeus axis, a major signature of the critical period 2017-2021. Let us recall the definition we give of this figure

PL/ZE – Irresistible power of the depths. Irresistible push in a given direction. A compulsive need for transformation. Progress in secret. Atomic light. Secret strategy carried out methodically.

The conjunction Jupiter-Zeus brings the notion of the success of a methodical action in the service of an irresistible power. The mid-point Sun/Uranus can be considered as the triggering factor of a sudden explosion. The MC/PV (Midheaven/Vernal Point) axis is the signature of a "public relationship public, to the community". It reflects the general significance of the event through the world. For the Jupiter/Pluton figure, we propose the following definition :

JU/PL – Expansion of a transformation, an upheaval. Successful reversal situation. The signature of a cycle of death-renaissance, destruction-reconstruction, under the effect of a power coming from the depths, acting in secret.

Some aspects related to the axis Hades/Apollo must also to be taken into account: - Great expansion of the power of death. Proliferation of corruption, of meanness, of wickedness, of ignoble acts -.

The Kronos/Vulcanus axis refers to a powerful authority, an energetic action in relation to the highest power, the greatest force, with a universal reverberation. This axis can also refer to an energetic action by the criminal police.

The Pluto-Zeus square now transits to 19° Capricorn-Libra, Pluto being on its South Node (17° 27 Capricorn). This position can accompany a great psychological transformation for a community and create a compulsive security need. The transit of Pluto on its South Node will occur perfectly between January 20 and November 23, 2018; it will therefore be fully effective during the next presidential election in Russia (the first round will be held on March 11, 2018).

The theme of the St Petersburg terror attack touches Vladimir Putin's natal chart: the Moon (3° Gemini) and the Saturn/Neptune mid-point (19° Libra). With the Moon, one can assume a keen receptivity to the tragic event, an emotional shock. With Saturn/Neptune, this can stir up anxiety for fear of deceit or falsehood, or possibly translate the sneaky development of a situation that could block a system, the effective functioning of the authorities.
